Catholicism in the Modern World
Regis University – Lowell Campus

Thursday, October 28, 2010 – 7:00 PM

Finding Your Self in Service:
Career, Calling, and the Meaning of Life

Ed Hahnenberg, Ph.D
Professor of Theology, Xavier University

Dr. Hahnenberg is the author of three books and a very popular speaker on topics related to spirituality, discernment and ministry.

Awakening Vocation: A Theology of Christian Call – Liturgical Press
Ministries: A Relational Approach – The Crossroads Publishing Company

Thursday, February 10, 2011 – 7:00 PM

“Gratitude: The Heart of Christian Living”

Charles Shelton, S.J., Ph.D

Fr. Shelton is a professor of Psychology at Regis University, a licensed psychologist, the author of six books and numerous articles, papers, and reviews on such topics as mental health, moral development and conscience functioning, pastoral psychology, and positive human development.

Thursday, March 31, 2011 – 7:00 PM

“Becoming Mercy & Living Beyond the Borders”

Sr. Marilyn Lacey, R.S.M.

Marilyn Lacey, R.S.M., has worked with refugees for the past 25 years, both in displaced persons camps in Africa and Asia, and as Director of Refugee Services with Catholic Charities in San Jose, California. In 2001 she was honored by the Dalai Lama as an "Unsung Hero of Compassion" and has long been an advocate for refugees and migrants. She holds an M.S.W. from U.C. Berkeley and in 2008 she founded the nonprofit Mercy Beyond Borders, whose mission is to partner with displaced women and children overseas in ways that help them move up from extreme poverty.

Location: Regis University Chapel – www.regis.edu –check events calendar, or: pmaloney@regis.edu